is braking into the $22 billion dollar brake business in North America.

It's time that one of the largest segments in the auto parts industry, the brake business, offer consumers the deals & promotions they deserve.

BrakeDeal.com will raise capitol through rewards-based crowdfunding. Investors will receive free brakes (brake rotors & brake pads) and/or discounts on parts based on the funding they commit.

What is Rewards Crowdfunding?

Rewards-based crowdfunding is where contributions are exchanged for current or future goods or services.

To create the capitol needed to make brakedeal.com the most popular e-commerce website for brakes, we need start-up capitol support to bring down the high cost of vehicle brake parts and brake service.

BrakeDeal.com Individual and corporate supporters can also contribute to start-up capitol through crowdfunding. Supporters have access to business statistics and traffic report. Supporters can watch us grow in real time.

Why crowdfunding brakedeal.com as a supporter?

You have a chance to become part of the next great business start-up. You have the opportunity to participate with a company that is launching an exciting and innovative product.

We are committed to keeping costs to consumers and fees to installers and parts stores as low as possible. Supporting brakedeal.com through crowdfunding gives those who benefit from our site, a way to further support us.

We hope you will join us and crowdfund us at:
